

Speaking – Instructions

1. Total time for the speaking will be 11-14 minutes.
2. There are 3 parts.
3. Part-1, the candidate and examiner introduce themselves. Candidates then answer general questions. This part lasts between 4 and 5 minutes.
4. Part-2, the candidate is given a task card with prompts and is asked to talk in particular topic. The candidate has one minute to prepare and they can make some notes if they wish, before speaking for between 1 and 2 minutes.
5. Part-3, the examiner and candidate engage in a discussion of more abstract issues which are thematically linked to the topic in part-2. This part lasts between 4 and 5 minutes.

SPEAKING

PART 1

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

Flowers: -

1. Do you like to have flowers in your home? [Why/Why not?]
2. Where would you go to buy flowers? [Why/Why not?]
3. On what occasions would you give someone flowers?
4. Are flowers important in your culture? [Why/Why not?]

Lifestyle: -

1. What do you do in your free time?
2. Do you have a busy social life?
3. Do you lead an active life?
4. Has your life changed much in the last year?

Museums: -

1. Are museums popular in your country?
2. Did you visit museums when you were a child?
3. Do you like to visit museums nowadays?
4. Do you think you should pay to visit museums?

SPEAKING

PART 2

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.

You have one minute to think out what you are going to say. You can make some notes for you if you wish.

Describe a meeting you remember going to at work, college or school.

You should say:

- when and where the meeting was held
- who was at the meeting
- what the people at the meeting talked about

SPEAKING

PART 3

Discussion topics: -

Going to meetings.

1. What are the different types of meeting that people often go to?
2. Some people say that no one likes to go to meetings – what do you think?
3. Why can it sometimes be important to go to meetings?

International meetings.

1. Why do you think leaders often have meetings together?
2. What possible difficulties might be involved in organising meetings between world leaders?
3. Do you think that meetings between international leaders will become more frequent in the future? Or will there be less need for world leaders to meet?